INTERNATIONAL
AKAROA
SUMMER FESTIVAL
13 TO 22 JANUARY 2012

Wolfgang Kraemer
Festival Director

WELCOME

Dear audience and friends of the International Akaroa Summer Festival,

With over 2,400 guests at the Festival in January 2011 we had a very successful concert season. Also over 1000 attendees stayed in Akaroa during the Festival, benefiting local businesses.

All events - including the Summer School itself - received great compliments from the audience and participants. Attendees were especially appreciative of our international guest artists.

For the 2012 Festival we have again managed to invite internationally renowned artists such as Leo Phillips from the United Kingdom, Mario de Secondi from Italy and Germany, Kerry DuWors from Canada, Kathryn Parry from the United Kingdom, Ben Parry from the United Kingdom, Edith Salzmänn, Diedre Irons, Michael Endres, Stephen Larsen, Anthony Ferner, Selena Orwin, Rachel Doig, Serenity Thurlow and Lois Johnston.

We are looking forward to having everyone in Akaroa for 10 days of intensive rehearsing, teaching and performing and we welcome New Zealand's highly talented music students and of course you - our audience.

All masterclasses and rehearsals of the festival are open to the public and we would like to encourage everyone to spend some time attending instrumental lessons or listening to a musical masterpiece taking shape in rehearsals.

Akaroa has proven to be a wonderful host town for our festival; we are looking forward to this year's events. We want to say thank to our generous sponsors and supporters. Without their help we wouldn't be able to present such variety and quality of music.

I especially want to thank the organising committees of the Akaroa Area School and the Trinity Church who immediately offered use of their facilities after we received notification that both the Gaiety Hall and the Powerhouse are closed. Without them and all other Akaroa residents whose collaboration is invaluable we wouldn't be able to provide you with what we think is a rich and varied programme of superb chamber music.

Yours sincerely
Wolfgang Kraemer and the organising team

CONCERT 7

ITALIAN BAROQUE

Wednesday, 18th January, 7pm, Akaroa Area School Auditorium

Xiao Ma's bright, solid, yet flexible coloratura, seamless integration of chest voice and head voice, and rich musical expressiveness has earned himself a wide audience.

His popular engagement was Cherubino in Marriage of Figaro with Shanghai Opera. His bel canto repertoire includes Rosina in Il barbiere di Seviglia and Vivaldi, Handel's arias. Agitata da due venti, a Vivaldi's aria showcases his solid technique. Changing at will between his male and mezzo-soprano voice gives him unique presence in pop style singing as well.

Xiao Ma and other soloists will perform popular arias and concertos by Antonio Vivaldi and other baroque composers.
