INTERNATIONAL
AKAROA
SUMMER FESTIVAL
15 TO 31 JANUARY 2010

GENERAL CONDITIONS

The masterclasses are open to University music students and school students. Students under the age of fourteen must be accompanied by a parent/guardian. At the discretion of the organisers, applicants may be asked to audition, either taped or in person. Passive participation as a listener is possible.

The festival consists of masterclasses, string orchestra rehearsals and concerts.

The final concert will be played by the chamber orchestra, which will be formed by students of the string classes. Participation is obligatory.

The staff will decide who is participating in the orchestra and will also choose potential soloists for this concert.

The solo repertoire prepared for the courses should be indicated in detail.

All participants will receive free entry to any public concert organised by the International Akaroa Summer Festival except the events at the French Farm.

There are a limited number of practice rooms available.

All lessons will be at the Akaroa Area School or next door at the Gaiety Hall.

The course fee includes:

Daily orchestra rehearsals (strings)

Strings and piano: 7 lessons
(45 minutes each lesson)

Wind and Harp: 5 lessons (45 minutes each lesson)

Voice: See schedule

Involved in at least one lunch time concert
